- ❖ A complimentary 3 week residency at NG Art Creative Residency in February 2020
- ❖ Establish and build international audiences and art patronage
- ❖ Showcase your work in a major international exhibition in May 2020 in the 12th century Eglise St Laurent, Eygalières
- ❖ Receive mentorship and support for your practice
- ❖ Receive guidance into the commercial art world

We are thrilled to announce the Stanley Quек Art Prize, generously gifted by Stanley Quек to the NG Art Creative Residency.

The Stanley Quек Art Prize, is an acquisitive contemporary art award for international emerging and established artists, donated in the hope of the continued development of your creative future.

This support offers a direct impact to foster outcomes that may not otherwise come into fruition. This prize values what it means to be a passionate creative and the importance of embracing artistic innovation and experiment through discursive platforms.

The Prize Winner will receive a free three-week placement at the NG Art Creative Residency in the historic village of Eygalieres, Provence in February 2020. This includes board and lodging, mentorship and residency-related outings, valued at up to AUD$3,000, USD $2,200, €2,000, £1,700.

Directed and run by long-standing gallerist, curator, entrepreneur, director and visionary, Nicky Ginsberg, the Prize Winner will benefit from Ginsberg's experience and intimate knowledge of the commercial art world.

The acquisitive Prize Winner will have access to a large studio space and four hectares of en plein air beauty spots to ignite their imagination. They will explore the Provence region, learn the native tongue and try their hand at traditional Provencal cooking, engage with fellow creatives and the local artistic community at evening soirées, feasts for the senses, and special events.

They will also have the chance to exhibit their work in France in the 12th century Eglise St Laurent Eygalieres, for a 3 week exhibition in May 2020, attracting large international audiences of up to 2,500.
